曼殊院門跡 秋の特別公開 2026

延暦年間（八世紀末）に創建され、皇族ゆかりの門跡寺院として歩んできた曼殊院は、明治維新までおよそ九百年にわたり、北野天満宮の別当職を務めてきました。

令和九年、北野天満宮では「菅公御神忌千百二十五年半萬燈祭」が執り行われます。

この節目を前に、当院に伝わる天神さまゆかりの御宝物を公開いたします。

雷神となって都を震わせた菅原道真公の物語は、北野天満宮の国宝をはじめ、「北野天神縁起」として各地に伝えられてきました。曼殊院にも、その一本が伝わります。

源頼光と四天王の鬼退治を描く「酒呑童子絵巻」とあわせ、古の物語を今に伝える二つの絵巻をご覧いただけます。

紅葉に包まれた曼殊院へ、ぜひ足をお運びください。

Manshuin Monzeki – Special Opening 2026 Autumn

Manshuin was founded in the Enryaku era (late 8th century) and grew into a monzeki temple with close ties to the imperial family. For roughly 900 years, until the Meiji Restoration, it also held the post of bettō, the chief administrator of Kitano Tenmangū Shrine.

In 2027, Kitano Tenmangū will hold the Han-Mantōsai, a festival of ten thousand lanterns marking 1,125 years since the passing of Sugawara no Michizane. Ahead of this milestone, Manshuin is putting on public view temple treasures connected to Tenjin, as Michizane is known when worshipped as a deity.

The story of Michizane, who became a thunder god and shook the capital, has been passed down across Japan in versions of the Kitano Tenjin Engi, the illustrated legend of the shrine's origins. The best known is the National Treasure set kept at Kitano Tenmangū, and one version has also come down to Manshuin. It will be shown together with the Shuten Dōji Emaki, which shows the warrior Minamoto no Raikō and his Four Heavenly Kings defeating the demon Shuten Dōji. Together, the two scrolls carry these old tales into the present.

We warmly invite you to visit Manshuin while it is surrounded by autumn colors.
